The Island offers all facilities for family including a small but good equipped hospital since 2009. On the Island, there are many big and small bungalows, resort hotels in all classes. 2 five star hotels are available. The next one to this selling land is The Evason Six Senses Hotel within only few kilometers.

From here there are many exploring targets for Snorkeling and Diving Lovers. Near around Koh Yao Noi are at least 20 small single island with beautiful beaches which are really comfortable to reach by fisher boat within small distances and expenses. And from her you can also get to the James Bond Island (Koh Poo call the people here), the place where many years ago was this island prepared for the world premier film James Bond. Since ever there were millions people day per day coming here without, now is about 30 years long, any declining of visitors.
