The luxury of simplicity, The feeling of being at peace.

On the northwest coast of the island, an untouched paradise far, far from southern beaches; far in serenity, far in peace. The mornings when the shadows of the PINES stretch over the waves. Natural beauty. Beachside relaxation. And a feeling that you have left the cares of the world behind you.

Every unit benefits from natural airflow, a breeze from the beach and dappled light through the fronds of the pine trees. The material chosen reflect the natural surroundings, allow the project to perfectly integrate with the land's original beauty. The swimming pool is laid out in such a way so as to seamlessly connect the lobby to the beach. You can't help but feel relaxed.
