“Wow!” is the word people frequently utter when entering this unique holiday / party destination on the edge of Laguna, Phuket. Remember the word...

This matching pair of adjoining pool villas are truly one of a kind. For a start, just like a Picasso's Diptychs (matching paintings) they don't even match..! These quirky, creative holiday villas sleep

8-10 people each and are ideal for family gatherings, weddings and functions. How quirky? How about your own mini-football pitch for team building, a birthday party or game of 5 a-side? Graffiti wall art by Thailand's equivalent of Banksy? Jane Mansfield's actual 1950's reception room transported and recreated all the way from Hollywood? Discretely situated in a quiet neighbour close to Laguna's world famous bars, beach clubs and restaurants Pablo and Paloma Villas are ideal vacation residences for people seeking something fun, something different.

Both villas come with full maid, concierge and transport optional services to let you focus on what you came for - having a great time.

The villas are available for RENT long-term at THB 220,000 per month (per villa).
