Key Investment Attributes

- Offering a freehold tenure, this is premium and sought-after real estate in the Andaman region of Thailand.
- Direct beachfront locality.
- Other resorts established underpin the immediate area from a tourism aspect.
- A "Greenfield" site, unique and effectively a blank canvas for further development.
- Possibility to develop a resort property.
- Potential to develop a upmarket private residential project.
- Proximal location with respect to Phuket International Airport (25 minutes).
- Public Road access.
- A resort development on the site would exude the traditional Thai hospitality, warmth, friendliness and relaxation uniquely blended with contextual tropical landscape setting and its relation to the sea. With its tropical landscaped area, expansive Andaman Ocean views coupled with the unique landfall, this spectacular setting allows for the Thai character to be exhibited and delivered.
- The current presentation of the site allows for the ability to explore all possible development options.
