Price: 33000000

Property size: 512

Nestled within the award winning Chava boutique resort and estate in Phuket, Thailand, is The Residence Surin of exceptional and inspiring quality, comfort and grace. A 5-bedroom home of impressive lines and architectural flow, all effortlessly enhanced by bespoke art, furniture and meticulous finish, spread over 512 Sqm of luxury and refinement.

An overwhelming sense of serenity and uninhibited space immediately greets you when you enter The Residence, and the large free flowing volume contributes to the feeling of tranquility and refinement. A quiet yet lively space, enlivened here and there with touches of object d'art and contemporary art. With all of the five bedrooms leading off the central living area, a perfect sense of togetherness is clearly evident throughout. There is wireless internet and home theatre systems and little sophistications that make for lasting memories.

A short meander from the seclusion of The Residence Surin is Phuket's most fashionable beach; Surin, a favourite amongst those in the know, fashion publications and the celebrity set.

The Residence Surin is fully furnished and equipped, from designer furnishings, imported linens, entertainment systems and beautiful artworks. This spacious residence incorporates an open plan living space, dining and entertainment area, a large terrace perfect for barbeques, and a crystalline plunge pool. The Residence Surin's prime position within The Chava Resort, also provides guests with access to top class conveniences and facilities one would expect from a 5 star hotel.

About The Chava Resort

The Chava's sophisticated yet relaxed contemporary design is the work of well-known Hong Kong architect Branko Pahor. The relaxed tropical setting with all the modern comforts of a 5 star hotel, is where you will cleanse your soul, spoil your senses and your every need will be effortlessly met.

The magnificent 35 metre swimming pool sparkles like a liquid diamond under the Thai sun and after taking in cooling swim, avail yourself to a rejuvenating massage by one of the qualified therapists on any one of the luxury day beds surrounding this little oasis.

Should you feel rather peckish after a day of pampering and relaxation; the Tonsai Café will delight your taste buds with an inspiring selection of delectable Thai and International cuisine.

As is evident, The Chava will cater to your every whim and wish, with a 24-Hour concierge and security service, a travel desk, valet parking, babysitting, grocery and laundry service, all available to assist you in maximising your relaxation time and to make this your perfect holiday in Phuket an undeniable reality.

Only a short stroll from the idyllic world of The Chava is the world famous Surin Beach, ideally situated on the sun kissed west coast of Phuket. The Chava is therefore ideally positioned for those who appreciate luxury, convenience and location. The Chava is also close to 5 superb golf courses along with luxurious day spas, designer boutiques and specialty stores. The travel desk will be happy to book these or any other activities you may require and suggest a few alternatives for the intrepid traveller.

All the facilities and services are available to the owner and guests of this villa-condo at The Chava.
