Located just behind one of Phuket's longest beaches, the Bangtao villa has great access to this quiet and beautiful spot. Stretching 6km (4 miles) long with a few luxury hotels spaced out along the beach, Bangtao beach is the perfect place to relax and get lost in a good book.

The Bangtao villa's design inspiration was taken from the beauty of the local area. Tao (from Bangtao) means gray in Thai which was the base of the color palette, in keeping with X2 design but punches of color were added, inspired by the blue and green of Phuket's famous waters. The oceans magnificent color was replicated in the large pool with the use of unique lava stone tiles which create a deep emerald green coloring. Further shades of green and blue were added with the industrial chic use of custom aged metal panels and industrial materials.
